

HAVE VINTAGE POKEMON CARDS?

Use this guide to help find out what version of old Pokemon cards you have!

Base Set - 1st Edition

Creature Cards

1st Edition cards DO NOT have a dropshadow to the right of the image box. This only applies to creature cards.

(Highlighted in BLUE)

(1st Ed. and Shadowless on left)
(Unlimited Edition on Right)

Trainer Cards

This 1st Edition logo can be found on all First Edition Base Set Cards
(Highlighted in DARK BLUE)

Energy Cards

©1995,96,98,99 Nintendo, GAMEFREAK, ©1999Wizards

The year 1999 can be found printed twice in the copyright statement at the bottom of the card. Once as "99" and once as "1999".

(Highlighted in RED)

Base Set - Shadowless

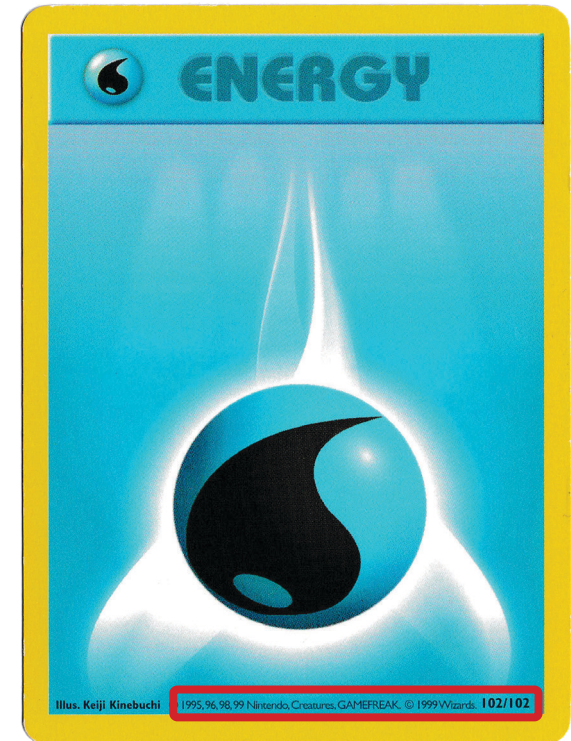

Creature Cards

Trainer Cards

Energy Cards

Shadowless cards are almost exactly the same as 1st Edition cards but DO NOT have the 1st Edition logo printed on the card.

Like 1st Edition, Shadowless cards also DO NOT have a dropshadow on the right side of the image on creature cards.
(Highlighted in BLUE)

©1995,96,98,99 Nintendo, GAMEFREAK, ©1999Wizards

The year 1999 can be found printed twice in the copyright statement at the bottom of the card. Once as "99" and once as "1999".

(Highlighted in RED)

IMPORTANT:

This is the ONLY WAY to distinguish between Shadowless and Unlimited TRAINER and ENERGY cards!

Base Set - Unlimited

Creature Cards

Unlimited Edition creature cards are distinguishable by the dropshadow added to the right side of the image.
(Highlighted in BLUE)

Trainer Cards

Unlimited cards DO NOT have the 1st Edition logo printed on the card.

Energy Cards

©1995,96,98 Nintendo, GAMEFREAK, ©1999Wizards

The year 1999 is printed only once in the copyright at the bottom of the card.
(Highlighted in RED)

IMPORTANT:

This is the BEST AND EASIEST way to distinguish Unlimited Base Set cards from 1st Edition and Shadowless!